A Message from the PastorEaster Sunday: New Day*

Today we begin the Easter Season, our 50-day meditation on the mystery of Christ's Resurrection. Our Gospel today tells us about the disciples' discovery of the empty tomb. It concludes by telling us that they did not yet understand that Jesus had risen from the dead. Thus, the details provided are not necessarily meant to offer proof of the Resurrection. The details invite us to reflect upon a most amazing gift, that is faith in Jesus and his Resurrection.

The tomb was empty. In the early morning darkness of that first Easter, there was only confusion for Mary Magdalene and the other disciples. But as the daylight spread, they saw the dawning of a new creation.

At first they didn't understand the Scripture, today's Gospel tells us. We don't know which precise Scripture texts they were supposed to understand. Perhaps it was the sign of Jonah, who rose from the belly of the great fish after three days. Or maybe Hosea's prophecy of Israel's restoration from exile. Perhaps it was the psalmist who rejoiced that God had not abandoned him to the netherworld. Whichever Scripture it was, as the disciples bent down into the tomb, they saw and they believed. What did they see? Burial shrouds in an empty tomb. The stone removed from the tomb. Seven times in nine verses we hear that word "tomb."

What did they believe? That God had done what Jesus said He would do -- raised Him up on the third day. What they saw and believed they bore witness to, as today's First Reading tells us. Peter's speech is a summary of the gospels from Jesus' baptism in the Jordan to His hanging on a tree, to His rising from the dead. We are children of the apostles, born into the new world of their witness. Our lives are now "hidden with Christ in God," as today's Second Reading says. Like them, we gather in the morning on the first day of the week to celebrate the Eucharist, the feast of the empty tomb.

We rejoice that the stones have been rolled away from our tombs, too. Each of us can shout, as we do in today's Psalm: "I shall not die, but live." They saw and believed. And we await the day they promised would come, when we, too, "will appear with Him in glory."

Our story of Faith is His Resurrection Story shared in the Eucharist.

Choicest Blessings,

Fr. TimOperation Storm Heaven

Road to Renewal

He is Risen! He is Risen Indeed!

Alleluia! Today the words of Pope Saint John Paul II echo out "We are the Easter people and hallelujah is our song." Our Churches are illumined with the Easter flowers, families are coming together to break bread and rejoice that truly the Lord Jesus Christ is risen. Thank you to everyone who played a role in preparing our Triduum and Easter celebrations. Easter Blessings on all who attended and brought others.

We are carefully and pastorally implementing our initial action plans. The Pillar groups are honing a few more action items and now working on a five year strategic plan, and how to implement both. Parish Pillar Teams are still important to help research and advise the Pillar groups. All the Pillar Group representatives are invited to assist in implementing the accepted plan. There is still room on these Parish Pillars for members and workers.

The next family pastoral council meeting will continue to flesh out these proposals and suggest the best way to move forward. I pray the time we take now to carefully look at all aspects of the renewal and consult with as many people as possible will show its value as we go on. I am optimistic in our working together and seeking together God's Plan for us. I am realistic in considering the unknowns and challenges like Chapter 11/ Reorganization and our world situation.

This Easter let us take inspiration from the disciples who found the tomb empty and ran out rejoicing because God has been recognized in His Son, today in an empty tomb, but in the weeks ahead in His visits and in the breaking of the bread. My final prayer today is that we experience this as a Family of Believers.

Choicest Blessings,

Fr. Tim
